Dear colleagues,
the President of the German Pharmaceutical Society (DPhG) and the Congress Chairman would like to invite you to come to Munich, Germany, in October and attend our Annual DPhG meeting 2016. With this year’s meeting we would like to emphasize the truly interdisciplinary nature of our profession, the Pharmaceutical Sciences. This interdisciplinarity has found its expression in the structure and contents of the many sessions and lectures of the 2016 meeting, where we try to overcome the classical divisions in pharmaceutical sciences wherever it is possible.

We are looking forward to welcoming you and your co-workers in Munich. Poster contributions and the pertaining interaction of (mostly) younger scientists with many attendees are a major part of the annual DPhG meetings. We have therefore actively planned free time for posters where the attention is not distracted by parallel options. Furthermore we have decided to offer “prime time” sessions for our excellent young postdocs and group leaders who have not yet received a professors position and need our full attention to secure growth and sustainability of our sciences in the future.

Best wishes for a fruitful meeting with intensive scientific exchange and discussions!

Prof. Dr. Stefan Laufer
DPhG-President

Prof. Dr. Gerhard Winter
Congress Chairman
Venue

The Congress will take place at Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München Fakultät für Chemie und Pharmazie Butenandtstr. 5-13 Haus F (Hörsaalbereich) 81377 München

By train and public transport
By IC, EC, ICE to Munich Central Station (München Hauptbahnhof). From there, take the subway U1 or U2 to Sendlinger Tor. Change to U6 in the direction of Klinikum Großhadern and get off at Großhadern. Go to rear exit, then turn left to exit. Take the stairway to your left. You are now on Würmtalstraße. Now you can walk along Würmtalstraße until the campus comes into view (large modern buildings) on the left (about 10 to 15 minutes) or take the bus 266 in the direction of Planegg to Waldhüterstraße.
